

SEE YOU AT THE PBA RALLY! BE THERE ON JANUARY 11th

One of the most important events of the PBA year will take place in a couple of days and it's important for each and every one of you to participate. As I've written to you earlier, the year 2001 is a crucial time for New York City police officers. While we're doing the best job in the nation, the city is stalling our contract negotiations and apparently unwilling to come up with a fair and equitable settlement that will give our members a long overdue, decent raise in salary.

Joined by our families and other supporters, we are going to assemble in a highly visible public setting to demonstrate our solidarity and give voice to our concerns. The PBA-sponsored rally will be:

- At 11 a.m.
- On Thursday, January 11, 2001
- In City Hall Park in Downtown Manhattan

It should be a day not only for showing New Yorkers how we feel about the contract negotiations but also how we feel about our brother and sister officers. Also remember to behave in a professional manner at all times throughout the rally and in its aftermath. There are people out there who want us to fail. Let's not give them the satisfaction.
