

STREET JUSTICE: THE BRONX

Thursdays at 10pm on Investigation Discovery

Ralph Friedman, the most decorated detective in NYPD history, takes viewers inside his white-knuckle investigations in the new series STREET JUSTICE: THE BRONX on Investigation Discovery. In the 1970s, Friedman began his police career in New York City's infamous 41st precinct, dubbed "Ft. Apache." He was involved in some of the Bronx's most intense cases, from homicides to undercover busts and deadly shootouts in broad daylight. He was promoted to detective after five years, and his extraordinary career has been commemorated with 219 awards, including the department's second-highest honor: The Police Combat Cross. He has more than 2,000 arrests to his name.

EPISODES

“Bronx Most Wanted” on Thursday, November 30 at 10/9c: Det. Friedman gets a tip that Eli Gorin, an escaped felon on the FBI's most wanted list, is hiding out on his turf. He embarks on a deadly game of cat and mouse to bring Gorin to justice, only to learn that the madman has vowed to never be taken alive.

“The Reckoning” on Thursday, December 7 at 10/9c: When an illegal weapons sting on a tenement rooftop devolves into a deadly shootout, Det. Friedman barely escapes with his life. He attempts to put the ugly affair behind him, but soon learns he's been marked for death by the unlikeliest of villains.

“Bronx on Fire” on Thursday, December 14 at 10/9c: When a labor dispute among unlicensed cab drivers explodes into a full-scale riot, Det. Friedman and his partner attempt to quell the chaos. But the violence and destruction continues to spread outwards, and threatens to engulf the entire precinct.

“Hunting Grounds” on Thursday, December 21 at 10/9c: Det. Friedman is engaged in a race against the clock to save the life of a young mother who's been abducted by a sworn member of the most feared street gang in the south Bronx.

“Monster Among Us” on Thursday, December 28 at 10/9c: Det. Friedman is on the hunt for a ruthless serial rapist who's been preying on the women of Williamsbridge for weeks. But the case is stuck in neutral until he enlists the help of the monster's latest victim.

“Pitch Black” on Thursday, January 4 at 10/9c: When Det. Friedman and partner Kal Ungar respond to a burglary in progress, they suddenly find themselves caught in a hail of gunfire. Friedman takes down the shooter, but not before his partner takes seven bullets to the chest.
