

PACE UNIVERSITY - Offer for NYC PBA Members

All PBA members, NYPD police officers, qualified civilian and uniformed members may apply to Pace University's iPace program (an online bachelor's degree completion program with optional on-campus meetings) and will receive a $50 application fee waiver. The iPace program is priced at a 45% discount on traditional undergraduate tuition (fall11/spring12). Students may choose to study in the fields of Business or Computer Science.

Eligibility: All NYPD police officers, qualified civilian and uniformed members of the service

Note: Flexible part-time schedule including the option of 100% online study with optional on-campus meetings, a top-rated, private university education. Plus, you'll have access to all the same Pace facilities that all our other students enjoy, including support from one of the largest career services teams in the New York City metropolitan area.

Please contact Jennifer Dahmen at (212)3461324 or at jdahmen@pace.edu to discuss college admissions details or access the iPace website at www.pace.edu/ipace for further information.
