Why Use Laser Treatments for Hair Removal on the Face?

Unwanted hair on the face can be quite irritating. With our advanced laser machines working their magic, Advanced Derma Laser can get those unwanted hairs off your face. LHR is optimal for those who suffer from ingrown hairs. Our treatments can eliminate ingrown hairs for a more desirable and even skin tone. You will love your new smooth, supple, hair-free face without any of the extended beauty regimen required.

Jennifer Kandemir of Advanced Derma Laser Tech has 30 years of cosmetology experience as a certified laser specialist. She's been teaching advanced techniques, safety, and proper laser treatment to many aspiring laser technicians and companies in New York and abroad. Jennifer and her staff pride themselves on being one of the best laser hair removal treatment clinics in the area.
