Dear NYC PBA Members!

As restaurateur business owners, as Long Island residents, we are always aware of the important role that police officers have in life safety. To kick-off 2020, we want to recognize our people in law enforcement. We want to personally express our appreciation to you and your fellow officers for fulfilling your responsibilities, putting your lives at risk!

Please come to PDQ CHICKEN-FARMINGDALE (1004 Broadhollow Road in front of FLOOR & DECOR, adjacent to the IMAX, just north of the Route 109 intersection). All of our food and beverages will be discounted 50% for any members of law enforcement, first responders, and their families---all day.

Joining us for this celebration Thursday, January 9th, 11 AM-1 PM (which we want to do every year) will be two cast regulars of the long-time hit CBS television network show, "Blue Bloods"!

Come and meet ROBERT CLOHESSY who plays NYPD Lt. Sid Gormley, and ABIGAIL HAWK, who plays NYPD Det. Abigail Baker. On the series, both Robert and Abigail (who will be delighted to take photos with our guests) work for the "NYPD Police Commissioner" played by Tom Selleck!

When you join us at PDQ on January 9th---we have a complimentary lunch/dinner card for you (which you can use on your following visit to PDQ)! This is an OPEN WELCOMING invitation to all NYC PBA members--especially those who live in communities like: Farmingdale, Melville, Amityville, Babylon, Massapequa, Plainview, Hicksville, and the surrounding area!

Remember, our General Managers, RYAN BASHAM and MIKE FRANCISCO are always available to assist and to make sure you have a great PDQ experience. After all, we are "People Dedicated to Quality". Thank you for your attention and we look forward to personally greeting you and saying, 'THANKS' for the job you do!
